Whereas good job performance and public acceptance and appreciation require correctional officers to absorb the adverse attitudes present in confinement while maintaining themselves as professionals;

Whereas correctional officers have been honored by many States and localities;

Whereas correctional officers have been honored by joint resolutions of the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in 1984, 1985, 1987, and 1989; and

Whereas the attitude and morale of correctional officers is a matter worthy of serious Congressional attention: Now, therefore, be it
